Business ATM Burglary

In the early morning hours on Monday 12/12/16, the Quartzsite Police investigated a burglary at a local restaurant in the Town of Quartzsite. An Automatic Teller Machine (ATM) containing an undisclosed amount of US currency was removed from the establishment during the late night or early morning hours. The thieves left the location with the ATM and its current whereabouts is unknown. It is believed that the suspects had been watching the business prior to committing the crime.

The dedicated officers of the Quartzsite Police Department are actively following up on leads in this case and will not stop until these lowlifes are captured. If you have any information on this or any other crime, please contact the Quartzsite Police Department and an officer will follow up on the information.

If you see suspicious activity, immediately report it to the Quartzsite Police via the La Paz County Central Dispatch at 1-888-818-4911 for non-emergencies and 911 for emergencies.
