QPD Captures Wanted Felon

On Monday 12/12/16, the Quartzsite Police K-9 Team was proactively investigating the whereabouts of Michael Jay Curley who was wanted for an outstanding felony arrest warrant for drug related offenses issued by the La Paz County Superior Court. Curley is a violent career criminal and was also wanted for failure to register as a Level Two Sex Offender.

The QPD K-9 Team tracked Curley to a trailer park in the 900 block of East Rodgers Place in the Town of Quartzsite where Curley immediately ran at the sight of the "Quartzsite Police K-9 unit". Curley was captured after a foot chase and Taser deployment. Michael Jay Curley was booked into the La Paz County Detention Center for two counts Failure to Register, Misconduct Involving Weapons, Resisting Arrest, Possession of Marijuana, three counts of Possession of Drug Paraphernalia and the Felony Arrest Warrant.

The Quartzsite Police would like to remind you to immediately report suspicious activity to the Quartzsite Police via the La Paz County Central Dispatch at 1-888-818-4911 for non-emergencies and 911 for emergencies.

If you have any information on this or any other crime, please contact the Quartzsite Police Department and an officer will follow up on the information. The hard working men and women of the Quartzsite Police Department are committed to making the Town of Quartzsite a safer place, by removing violent criminals from our community.
